

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments ...	11
Notes on the audiovisual examples ...	13
Explanation of musical signs ...	19
List of illustrations ...	21

Introduction

...	25
The anthropology of death and ethnomusicology of crying ...	27
Rites de passage as rites of becoming and their emotional ambiguity ...	29
Anthropological crisis and phenomenological response ...	31
Noisound of crying ...	34
Crying is will for life : the inter-cultural system of traditional lamentation ...	36
Albanians and studies on Albanian rites of death and crying ...	39
Some methodological problems ...	50

Part I

Cultural phenomenology of death: faces of the faceless

Basic propositions between life and death - the classical Asiatic and Western traditions ...	55
'May your death die!' ...	58
Anxiety in face of after-death: vision of nothing in folk belief and metaphysics ...	59
The unconscious dead in face of his spirit - The Tibetan Book of the Dead ...	63
Inter-cultural imageries of death: thinking death in signs and images ...	71
Death as murder(er) ...	73
Burial alive ...	76
Crying as exculpation of murder ...	79
Death as catastrophe - burying my head in my hands ...	82
Fragments from Albanian fatalities ...	94
Otranto, 1997 ...	100
Ritual disposal of the dead as symbolic representation of death ...	112
Marriage with death ...	116
Integral cultural system of death: image, emotion, sound, body ...	121

Part II

Free integrative crying & the open poly-event funeral

- Self-affirmative emotion of uncontrollable crying ...127
 - Definition of free integrative crying ...129
 - Free simultaneous crying as a licensed ritual disorder ...131
- Open funerals - overlapping of crying, music-making and dancing ...138
- Crying for myself at the funeral of others ...147

Part III

The Albanian phonosphere of death: female crying & mourning

- The traditional system of mortuary vocal signals ...155
 - Cuckoo and cooing – kukatja ...157
 - The owl's hoot and the wolf's howl – ulërima ...161
 - The wail – kuja ...169
- Observations and reflections on the Albanian rite of female crying ...173
 - Classification of Albanian ritual lament in historical perspective ...175
 - Theatre of crying and hatred for the dead ...179
- Zija* – Mourning-in-Blackness ...183
 - Dying with the dead – the widow and the widower ...189
 - Musical forms of mourning ...190

Part IV

Gjama - Ritual shouting of men in north-Albanian Mountains

- Mythical horizon: Hours, Voices, Shadows and Ancestral Spirits ...195
- Object of study in its social, cultural and political context ...199
 - Semantic sphere of gjama ...208
 - Vocal system of a death announcement ...210
 - Conventional attitudes towards death ...212
- The rite of collective gjama in Malësia e Dukagjinit ...214
 - Collective gjama for a killed policeman in the village of Qelëz, Puka ...224
 - Local variants of collective gjama in Malësia e Madhe and Mirdita ...226
- Emotional spectrum, codification and symbolism of shouting ...228
 - Thunder as a sound ideal for gjama ...231
 - Sound material and pathogenic vocal type ...233
 - Multipart texture and performative forms of ceremonial gjama ...238
 - Ritual choreography of a 'tragic chorus' and the symbolism of blood ...241
 - Gjama in the light of dance and drama ...246

The verbalisation of the shout in pain ...	248
The individualisation of the poetic shout ...	249
The vocal-instrumental lament as a sign of honour - epic commemoration of the dead distinguished men ...	262
Female ceremonial lamentation ...	265
Blood-feud and blood-crying ...	273
Burial gjama at sunset ...	281
‘Crying upon the clothes of death’ - The absent body ...	284
Coda ...	288

Part V

The inter-cultural system of ritual funeral crying

Crying as idea, matter, fact ...	291
Screaming between the unspeakable and language: signifying pain ...	292
The fourfold articulation of funeral crying ...	294
The universal phenomenality of funeral crying, speaking and singing ...	296
Crying as technique, tool and medium ...	298
Ritual crying without words and the language of emotive syllables ...	299
Wordless instruction of the dead - the ‘talking instruments’ ...	304
‘Every drum is a dead man’ ...	308
Incantation of denial ...	309
The potlatch and possession as medium of lamentation...	311
Terminology of funeral lamentation in inter-cultural perspective ...	313
Crying and sobbing ...	314
Crying and voice ...	315
Crying and speaking ...	318
Crying and singing ...	320
Crying and feeling ...	322
Nameless lament ...	323
An open interruption ...	324
Two sides of the same coin ...	324
Classical & rock music in traditional funeral performance ...	324
Rebirth of grief-selling ...	325
A ‘life-centred funeral without God’ ...	326
Bibliography ...	329
Discography & Filmography ...	340
Abbreviations ...	341